

Cuyahoga Arts & Culture Board of Trustees Meeting and Grants Announcement November 14, 2016

Cuyahoga Arts & Culture's mission is to inspire and strengthen the community by investing in arts and culture. Cuyahoga Arts & Culture is pleased to invest more than $1.9 million in public funds to 184 organizations through our 2017 Project Support grant programs, as well as $12.6 million to 57 organizations through the 2017 General Operating Support program. The following pages detail the grant amounts by program.

To connect with our cultural partners and thousands of cultural experiences each month, we invite you to visit our website at ClevelandArtsEvents.com, or connect with us on Facebook and Twitter.

Next Steps for Cultural Partners

At Cuyahoga Arts & Culture, we see today's announcement as the beginning of a partnership. We look forward to providing you with opportunities and resources to help you strengthen your organization and serve your community, including learning and professional development workshops, a comprehensive events listing at ClevelandArtsEvents.com, an arts and cultural job board, crediting and communications tools, and technical assistance.

More immediately, expect an email from your program manager on Tuesday, November 15, that confirms the grant amount. You will receive the grant agreement via email in December.

Congratulations to all of our cultural partners! Again, we look forward to working together in the months ahead.

Sincerely,

Karen Gahl-Mills, ceo + executive director
Roshi Ahmadian, associate – communications & grant programs
Meg Harris, director of administration
Jessica Kayse, manager – resident engagement
Dan McLaughlin, manager – project support
Jill Paulsen, deputy director
Jake Sinatra, manager – special projects & communications
Nicole Thomas, manager – general operating support
