

Projects Funded in Spring 2026

Neighborhood Connections has approved $343,788 in grants to support 102 projects in Cuyahoga County.

Cuyahoga Arts & Culture, the local public funder for arts and culture, will co-fund 30 resident-led arts and culture projects (noted with “*”) through a partnership with Neighborhood Connections. Learn more at www.NeighborUpCLE.org.

Organization Name	Project Name	Neighborhood	Funding Summary
1,000 Ties	Relax, Refresh & Connect	Lee Harvard	1,000 Ties was funded $3,200 to host Relax, Refresh, & Connect - monthly two-hour wellness sessions featuring 45 minutes of yoga, 45 minutes of open-forum discussion, supervised children's programming, and hygiene kits and snacks. The program serves mothers, mother figures and their children in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood. Sessions will be held through October 2026.
A Band of Brothers	A Band of Brothers	Union Miles	A Band of Brothers, located in Union Miles, was awarded $3900.00 to host a 6-week mentoring model program over the summer for male students in the Union-Miles neighborhood of Cleveland in preparation for a return to school in August '26. The model will feature six (6) pillars of educational and student development programming.

A Place for Us	Concert in the Park 2026	East Cleveland	A Place for Us, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host a yearly event which enables neighbors to come together in a safe environment and help each other.
Ajayi Dance*	Half the Sky	Midtown	Ajayi Dance, located in Midtown, was awarded $2900.00 to host community dance classes with performance at Playhouse Square.
Ashley B. childHOOD Advocate	HOODTANK Season II	Lee Harvard	Ashley B. childHOOD Advocate, located in Lee-Harvard, was funded $2900 to host HOODTANK Season II, a neighborhood-based youth entrepreneurship and mentorship initiative that pairs young 'Hustlers' with seasoned community mentors through a game-show-style series of monthly community sessions.
Aurelius Wells Education LLC	Awesome Early Readers	East Cleveland	Aurelius Wells Education LLC, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to strengthen early literacy outcomes by connecting preschool children and families through culturally relevant literacy. Families will participate in facilitated literacy experiences that model how to use books and play-based tools to support language development at home.
BLACK WIDOW MANAGEMENT AND PRODUCTIONS*	BE FREE. BE YOU. (FREE~ <sup>8</sup> STYLE: FREE Your Mind & Embrace Your STYLE!)	St. Clair Superior	Black Widow Management and Productions, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3900 to support intergenerational events that celebrate the art of freestyle expression and feature multiple creative styles (Dance, Singing, Rapping, Creative Writing, Instrumentation, & Poetry).
Brother to Brother Conversation	Brother-to-Brother: Monthly Barbershop Conversations for Neighborhood Healing	Shaker Square	Brother to Brother Conversation, located in Shaker Square, was awarded $3900.00 to host conversations in a safe barbershop setting that will allow men to grow and form bonds with others in the community.

Buckeye Self Defense for Girls and Community*	Veterans' Voice	St. Clair Superior	Buckeye Self Defense for Girls and Community, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3900 to support a series of creative and expressive writing workshops designed to encourage Veterans to explore, write, publish and share their individual stories of military service as a community.
Camping for Wellness	Living a Better Life Through Wellness	South Collinwood	Camping for Wellness, in South Collinwood, was awarded $4,900 to host holistic wellness retreats to foster wellbeing and connection for community members of all ages.
Canaan Community Garden*	Canaan-Clara Tagg Brewer Community Garden	Lee Harvard	Canaan Community Garden was funded $3,900 to expand the Canaan-Clara Tagg Brewer Community Garden by adding pollinator beds filled with milkweed plants, creating an organic, pesticide-free space that supports Monarch butterfly populations. The project engages community gardeners and intergenerational neighbors in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood through recruiting, planting, tending, harvesting, and a celebration cookout.
Clean Suite Organization	Community SWAP Meet (Meet & Greet)	North Collinwood	Clean Suite Organization, located in North Collinwood, was awarded $4900 to host a community meet & greet event, encouraging connectivity, resource awareness, and mutual support among neighbors.
Clear Path Expungement Project, Inc	Clear Path Expungement Project, Inc	St. Clair Superior	Clear Path Expungement, Inc, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3900 to host 6 expungement education events supporting neighbors in determining expungable cases and providing legal oversight of expungement paperwork completion in Cleveland.
Cleveland Children's Small Business Fair	Cleveland Children's Small Business Fair	Glenville	Cleveland Children's Small Business Fair, in Glenville, was awarded $3900 to create a two-day experience that provides kids with a safe space to learn how to create a business from their passion and sell their products and services, providing a platform for youth K-12 to gain knowledge and resources for growing a business.

Cleveland Inner City Boxing	Mental Health Check in	Fairfax	Cleveland Inner City Boxing, located in Fairfax, was awarded $3900.00 to host mental wellness clinics aimed to decrease suicides rates in youth and teens.
Cleveland Women of Color in Economic and Community Development Professional Association	Coalition 2026 Events	Lee Harvard	Cleveland Women of Color in Economic and Community Development Professional Association was funded $2900 to host Coalition 2026 Events, a series of five monthly coalition-building gatherings designed to connect, resource, and activate members. The events will engage women of color working across economic development, community development, and entrepreneurship in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood.
Comics at the Corner	Buckeye Neighbors/Comics at the Corner	Buckeye-Woodhill	Comics at the Corner, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $2,700.00 to host 3 Lit Lounges plus the annual Buckeye Neighbors Trunk or Treat event on Halloween.
Community of Faith	Better Together Trauma Awareness and Healing Initiative	Broadway-Slavic Village	Community of Faith, located in Broadway-Slavic Village, was awarded $4,775.00 to host a resident-led, community-based program that raises awareness of trauma, grief, and resilience while creating safe, trusted spaces for healing and collective support.
Community Workshop	Food For All - Euclid Beach	North Collinwood	Community Workshop, in North Collinwood, was awarded $4900 to host weekly market nights, providing access to fresh food and community connection to neighbors.
Community Yahoo's	Walter Hyde Garden of Life	Broadway-Slavic Village	Community Yahoo's, located in Broadway-Slavic Village, was awarded $4900.00 to provide a communal grieving space that is dignifying, honest, and beautiful.

Concerned Citizens Community Council*	C4 & Vulnerable Voices Kinsman Road Urban Farm Project	Mt. Pleasant	Concerned Citizens Community Council (C4) was funded $3900 to host the C4 & Vulnerable Voices Kinsman Road Urban Farm Project. This project will bring the settled immigrant communities together to grow fresh food, raise chickens and bees and share with growers, and provide to others within the participating community.
CONNECT + LEARN + GROW*	Growing Stronger Summer Youth STEM Program	Broadway-Slavic Village	CONNECT + LEARN + GROW, located in Broadway-Slavic Village, was awarded $4900.00 to provide structured learning opportunities for youth that allow the programs participants to participate in interactive STEM learning.
Cookin' Fathers	Cookin Fathers Season 3	Midtown	Cookin' Fathers, located in Midtown, was awarded $2900.00 to empower fathers and families with the skills and knowledge needed for improved nutritional health and wellbeing.
D.S.U.T. Corp	Domestic Violence Prevention and Advocacy Program	Glenville	D.S.U.T. Corp, in Glenville, was awarded $3,100 to educate residents on nonviolent approaches to conflict and advocate for surviving families of domestic violence.
Dear Listeners Block Party*	Dear Listeners Block Party	North Collinwood	Dear Listeners Block Party, located in North Collinwood, was awarded $4900 to host a community block party and artist showcase, strengthening community connection to arts & culture.
Deep Roots Experience*	House of 1,000 Petals	University Circle	Deep Roots Experience, located in University Circle, was awarded $2,400.00 to host a senior-centered exhibition at the Cleveland Botanical Garden where memories become art. It will highlight senior interviews and story sessions, community programming, and the creation of video/audio content to display in the show

Destination Dream	BE HAPPY BLOCK PARTY 2026	Buckeye-Woodhill	Destination Dream, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $3900.00 to host the Be Happy Block Party Celebration.
Dot Creative*	Neighborhood Artist Exchanges	Clark Fulton	Dot Creative, focused in Clark Fulton, was awarded $3000 to host a series of small, artist-led gatherings that build connection, share artistic opportunities within Cleveland, and share learned lessons among Cleveland artists
East 185th Street Merchants Group	Walk & Roll 185th St Community Event	North Collinwood	East 185th Street Merchants Group, in North Collinwood, was awarded $3900 to host a community event fostering connectivity and inclusion among neighbors.
East Cleveland Senior Walkers	Senior Walkers Phase 2	East Cleveland	East Cleveland Senior Walking Club in East Cleveland was awarded $2,355.00 for a senior lounge for the senior walkers to gather, fellowship, relax and feel safe.
EC Grow Community Garden*	Sustain Our Seniors	East Cleveland	EC Grow Community Garden, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to make EC Grows accessible to senior gardeners by building higher garden plots, providing easier access to water, and fostering intergenerational gardening in which young adults assist.
Emmanuel Baptist Church	Fairfax Family Drop in Center & Pathway to Community Nursing	Fairfax	Emmanuel Baptist Church, located in Fairfax, was awarded $3900.00 to host a family drop in center for the community, providing various family activities and resources.

Extended Family	Family Matters	East Cleveland	Extended Family, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host an intergenerational parade series working in collaboration with the Cleveland Museum of the Arts, University Hts, and The African American Cultural Gardens.
Extravagant Care Services*	Leo's Casino 3rd annual Funk not Fight	Hough	Extravagant Care Services, located in Hough, was awarded $3900.00 to host Leo's Casino 3rd annual FUNK NOT FIGHT Love Fest.
Family Wellness Network CLE	Generations United for Health	Lee Harvard	Family Wellness Network CLE was funded $3,200 to deliver Generations United for Health, combining a four-week 'When Life Changes' resilience workshop series, a family Walk/Run, and a healthy cooking demonstration. The program focuses on combating loneliness in older adults and strengthening intergenerational connection between seniors and families in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood.
Following the Signs	Destination in Life	St. Clair Superior	Following the Signs, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3900 to support a neighborhood-based wellness initiative designed to strengthen residents' mental resilience and ability to manage everyday life stressors.
Friends of Dudley Triangle	Dudley Triangle Community International Food Festival	Detroit Shoreway	Friends of Dudley Triangle, in the Detroit Shoreway Neighborhood, were awarded $3900 to promote neighboring through offering a free international food festival.
Friends of Slavic Village	Dinner and Conversation in the Pocket	Broadway-Slavic Village	Friends of Slavic Village, located in Broadway-Slavic Village was awarded $3900.00 to set up community meals in strategic locations to connect people on the margins of the community to the broader neighborhood.

Gardening in the District	BEAUTY IS IN THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER	Glenville	Gardening in the District, located in Glenville, was awarded $2900.00 to support a youth arts and community exploration program that helps Cleveland youth celebrate their neighborhoods by learning local history and creating photography, video, and visual art that highlights the beauty of calling Cleveland home.
GardenWalk Cleveland	GardenWalk Cleveland 2026	Old Brooklyn	GardenWalk Cleveland, in the Old Brooklyn Neighborhood, was awarded $3900 to promote neighboring through hosting tours of urban farms in the city.
Green Hathaway Initiative Neighbors*	Community Festival with Neighbors	Glenville	Green Hathaway Initiative Neighbors, in Glenville, was awarded $3,676 to support an annual, resident-led Community Festival that promotes food security by showcasing farm-to-table cooking, local music, shared resources, a plant exchange, and neighborhood conversations.
GWA Global Girls With Attitudes*	Girls Go Global	East Cleveland	GWA Global Girls With Attitudes, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 for a collaborative arts-focused camp where girls engage directly with artists and art institutions through hands-on creative experiences that cultivate global curiosity, empathy, and leadership.
H.O.P.E Bereavement Fund Inc	26th Annual Appreciation Day	Mt. Pleasant	H.O.P.E. Bereavement Fund Inc. was funded $3,900 to host its 26th Annual Appreciation Day, a community celebration featuring youth activities for ages 6–14, a wellness/fitness walk, vendor booths, free lunch, and fellowship. The event serves children, families, and intergenerational community members in the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood.
Hasani Management Inc*	Hasani Garden Camp	Bellaire Puritas	Hasani Management Ince, in Bellaire Puritas, was awarded $2900 to support Hasani Garden camp a hands-on learning experience in sustainability, environmental stewardship, disaster preparedness, and artistic expression.

Healthy Minds Healthy Communities	Cleveland YPAR Youth Wellness Fellowship	Buckeye-Woodhill	Healthy Minds Healthy Communities, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $3900.00 to host intergenerational programming in Greater Buckeye, designed and led by youth Fellows.
Hearts United for Good	The Roots to Revenue Initiative	Bellaire Puritas	Hearts United for Good in Bellaire Puritas, was awarded $3900 to support a week-long, hands-on entrepreneurship program where parent-child teams create a small business together.
House of Chazzly LLC*	Cleveland Creator Hub	St. Clair Superior	House of Chazzly, LLC, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $2,700 to develop the Cleveland Creator Hub at the Brownhoist to provide a safe, inclusive space where artists and makers can connect, learn, and perfect their craft through structured workshops and collaboration.
I Am More Than My Zip Code*	Hidden Treasures Phase 2	Kinsman	I Am More Than My Zip Code, located in Kinsman, was awarded $4900.00 to expose youth and their families to art, recreation, and events that increase their personal values and optimism regarding Cleveland.
Jardin 4 Life Inc.	La Finca Planted in Community	Clark Fulton	Jardin 4 Life Inc., in Clark Fulton, was awarded $2900 to support stabilizing and activating La Finca through youth stipends, community-led environmental and beautification events, and safe La Marketa pop-up operations.
Kentucky Garden Music Series*	Music in the Garden	Ohio City	Kentucky Garden Music Series, in Ohio City, was awarded $3900 to promote arts and culture through offering free public concerts held at the Kentucky Garden Community Garden.

Kings and Queens	Drumming & Cultural Art in the City	Buckeye-Woodhill	Kings and Queens, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $4,475.00 to host weekly classes centered around teaching our youth their culture, teaching them their history, and having FUN doing it.
Kings Learning Garden*	Kings Learning Garden	Mt. Pleasant	Kings Learning Garden was funded $2,600 to activate a newly secured double lot on East 151st Street as a resident-led educational greenspace, with site preparation, raised beds, pollinator gardens, and children's learning areas. The project engages intergenerational residents — children, youth, and adults — in the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood through hands-on, participatory gardening classes.
Lady Stasya LLC	The Growing Girls Circle	Bellaire Puritas	Lady Stasya LLC, in Bellaire Puritas, was awarded $2900 to support The Growing Girls Circle, a youth-led, mother–daughter program that creates a safe space for girls ages 8–14
Larchmere Pollinators*	Neighborhood Pollinator Tree Lawn Gardens	Shaker Square	Larchmere Pollinators, located in Shaker Square, was awarded $3900.00 to bring the community together and build relationships and trust around a common goal of building pollinator gardens.
Larchmere Porchfest	Larchmere PorchFest 2026	Shaker Square	Larchmere Porchfest, located in Shaker Square, was awarded $3900.00 to host the annual Larchmere PorchFest.
Latin American Historical Society of Cleveland	Latin Girls/Women's Day	Clark Fulton	The Latin American Historical Society of Cleveland, was awarded $3220 to host the 2nd Annual Latina Girls/Women's Day which celebrates the UN's International Day of the Girl (October 11th)

Living for Epilepsy	Living for Epilepsy Seizure First Aid /CPR training	Hough	Living for Epilepsy, located in Hough, was awarded $3900.00 to support seizure first aid and CPR training for the neighborhood. The program will equip participants with life-saving skills, increase community knowledge about epilepsy, and promote safety and inclusion for individuals living with the condition.
Living Truth Center	Hello Neighbor Community Outreach	East Cleveland	Living Truth Center, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to support a neighborhood block party and outreach event that brings East Cleveland residents, local businesses, and leaders together to build relationships and strengthen neighborhood connections.
Love Train Ministries	Ladies and Gentlemen on the Rise Phase 3	St. Clair Superior	Love Train Ministries, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3,500 to beautify a safe community space on E. 74th Street to bring peace, hope, and healing to the neighborhood.
Making Room*	Making Room	St. Clair Superior	Ear to the Ground, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $3900 to support neighborhood storytelling, visual arts and participatory theatre through building resident-led gathering spaces.
Making the Change Foundation*	Youth Creative Arts Wellness Series	East Cleveland	Making The Change Foundation, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host The Youth Creative Wellness Series: a multi-disciplinary Arts enrichment program designed to boost youths' creativity, emotional wellness, and future-readiness through immersive, culturally relevant creative arts experiences.
MCIG	MCIG 5th Annual School Supply Drive	Fairfax	MCIG, located in Fairfax, was awarded $2900.00 to provide school supplies, free food, and entertainment for 300 plus children.

Midwest Prowess	Voices of La Vila Masquerade	Clark Fulton	Midwest Prowess, in Clark Fulton was awarded $2900 to host a free community masquerade and awards event
M-Pac Cleveland	We Care Project Peace, Hope & Healing	South Collinwood	M-Pac Cleveland, in South Collinwood, was awarded $3900 to hold Gun Violence Awareness events, fostering a sense of safety and community among neighbors.
New Level Jeep Club	Senior to Senior	Union Miles	New Level Jeep Club, located in Union Miles, was awarded $2,200.00 to have a Community Holiday Dinner for the Senior Citizens served by local Highschool Seniors.
Next Gen Leaders	Diamonds in the City: Cross-League Mentorship & Community Connection	Clark Fulton	Next Gen Leaders, centered in Clark Fulton, was awarded $2900 to implement "Diamonds in the City" initiative a softball program that acts as a restorative community intervention.
NRAGE	YRU Angry	East Cleveland	NRAGE, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900 to connect youth aged 13-18 with mentors who provide support in navigating the challenges that come with youth violence. The workshops will focus on conflict resolution, communication skills, and emotional resilience to empower young individuals to build healthier relationships and foster a safer community.
Ohio Elite Athletics	Ohio Elite Athletics	Lee Harvard	Ohio Elite Athletics was funded $2,600 to run a 12-month youth development program offering weekly track and field training, mentorship, and competitive opportunities, while promoting physical health, academic accountability, and positive community engagement. The program serves youth ages 6–18 in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood.

Papa Grandparents Family Education & Resource Family Day	Grandparents Family Day & Resource Fair Everywhere and ... All Over	Buckeye-Woodhill	Papa Grandparents Family Education & Resource Family Day, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $3900.00 to host an Education & Resource Family Day Picnic.
Passport to Love	Passport to Purpose: Love, Leadership & Life Skills Lab	Hough	Passport to Love, located in Hough, was awarded $2900.00 to provide free relationship, leadership, and life skills workshops for young adults, ending with a community showcase of participant stories and growth.
Physical Disability Support Group	We Hear the Silence	Union Miles	We Hear the Silence, located in Union Miles, was awarded $2900.00 to host support groups as a means of community outreach for families with children with physical disabilities ages 0-18 years old who cannot advocate for themselves.
PLANTING POSITIVE SEEDS AND RETENTION 216*	Peace Hope & Healing Garden	East Cleveland	PLANTING POSITIVE SEEDS AND RETENTION 216, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host engaging activities focused around a community garden to help keep interest and conversation that has been established thus far.
Profound Reflections	the connection campaign	Downtown	Profound Reflections, in Downtown Cleveland, was awarded $2900 to support a homeless outreach and resource giveaway connecting services for individuals experiencing homelessness.
Project Don't Forget	Hope On The Street	East Cleveland	Project Don't Forget, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2,149.00 to provide support to East Cleveland residents struggling with addiction and homelessness, offering food, clothing, hygiene supplies and community resources.

RE Pruitt Organization	Resonate/Resonance	Union Miles	RE Pruitt Organization, located in Union Miles, was awarded $2900.00 to host events targeting fathers by offering a safe space and educational forums that will expose them to healthy ways to care for themselves and their children.
Rhythm & Keys*	Expressing Life Through Music	East Cleveland	Rhythm & Keys, in East Cleveland, was awarded $3900 to hold a summer music program, strengthening the connection to art & culture for youth in the city.
Riff Mechanics	You're Instrumental	East Cleveland	Riff Mechanics, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host a unique set of musical and social activities for seniors in East Cleveland, including instrument making and music creation.
RitaKuttingup Ace of Fades & Locs	Crowned With Care: Mobile Grooming for Seniors & Bedbound Residents	Lee Harvard	RitaKuttingup Ace of Fades & Locs was funded $3900 to launch Crowned With Care: Mobile Grooming for Seniors & Bedbound Residents, providing free, recurring on-site grooming visits to those in need. The program serves seniors and bedbound residents who are unable to maintain personal grooming independently in the Lee-Harvard neighborhood.
Rivers in the Desert	The Mt. Pleasant Healing Village & Community Remembrance Ceremony	Mt. Pleasant	Rivers in the Desert was funded $2,600 to host The Mt. Pleasant Healing Village & Community Remembrance Ceremony, a two-day neighborhood healing experience grounded in the Rebirth Method. The ceremony serves residents impacted by violent loss, sudden death, and ongoing grief in the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood.
Riverside Park Community Outreach Committee	Unlock the Magic of Healthy Eating	Kamms Corner	Riverside Park Community Outreach Committee, in Kamms Corner, was awarded $2888 to support an initiative designed to strengthen relationships across their diverse, multi-cultural and intergenerational community while promoting health, well-being, and mutual support.

Rosa Parks Block Club	Growing on Rosa Parks Drive	Glenville	Rosa Parks Block Club, in Glenville, was awarded $3900 to beautify Rosa Parks Drive by painting curbs, creating a neighborhood flag, planting flower beds, supplying residents with ring cameras, replacing lamp post lights, and throwing a celebratory block party.
Sevynteenth	Together in Motion	Union Miles	Sevynteenth, located in Union Miles, was awarded $2900.00 to host a series of inclusive, community-based activities designed to bring together developmentally disabled residents and residents from the City of Cleveland to promote social connection, physical activity, and overall wellness.
She Speaks Success	Our Stories Project	East Cleveland	She Speaks Success, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2900.00 to host a training for youth in the community who have less opportunities for hands-on support. They will take time to teach cheer, and provide a safe environment to develop skills that will be lifelong.
SHED Projects	SHORT CUTS film Festival	Brooklyn Centre	SHED Projects, in the Brooklyn Centre Neighborhood, was awarded $3900 to promote arts and culture through supporting artist, hosting workshops, and having a showcase of experimental films to the public.
Somali American Association of Cleveland	Black Youth Education Initiative	Cudell/Edgewater	Somali American Association of Cleveland, in Cudell Edgewater, was awarded $2900 to support an annual back-to-school drive by providing students with essential school supplies, backpacks, clothing, and supportive services such as haircuts and food.
Speak Into the light	Thrive from the Ground up- Neighbor-led food, health and connection	Hough	Speak Into the light, located in Hough, was awarded $2900.00 to support neighbor-led soil health, composting, greenhouse growing, sustainability practices, and shared food and wellness learning for 20–30 neighbors on the top half of Linwood Avenue.

Special Occasionz	Special Occasionz with you in mind	Mt. Pleasant	Special Occasionz was funded $3,200 to deliver Special Occasionz, with you in mind!, a full calendar of senior-focused monthly events including arts-and-crafts parties, technology classes, holiday celebrations, Aerobics in the Park, Bingo, a Vision Board Party, and a Cupid Dance. The program serves seniors in the Mt. Pleasant/Union-Miles area.
St. Clair Mobile Art Cart*	Junk Journal Club Cleveland	St. Clair Superior	St. Clair Mobile Art Cart, in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $2,700 to support an art and journaling club with reuse materials and low barrier supplies at Upcycle Parts Shop.
Strong Hands United*	For The Culture	East Cleveland	Strong Hands United, located in East Cleveland, was awarded $2700.00 to plan and host the Art & Cultural Show.
Sustaining Movement Services*	Dance in the Square	Shaker Square	Sustaining Movement Services, located in Shaker Square, was awarded $3,100.00 to host monthly dance classes for adults with disabilities at Cleveland City Dance.
Taking Back Our Youth*	Through The Lens of The Youth "The Art of Me"	Clark Fulton	Taking Back Our Youth, in Clark Fulton, was awarded $2900 to host a youth-led art show featuring the creative work of participants in their mental health and case management programs.
Team La Family Off-Roaders	Team La Family Off-Roaders Back to School Support	Old Brooklyn	Team La Family Off-Roaders, in the Old Brooklyn neighborhood, was awarded $3900 to help families be prepared for school to have a successful year.

The Actors Village*	Neighborhood Buzz!	Union Miles	The Actors Village, located in Union Miles, was awarded $2900.00 to host a six-week program designed to improve the physical, cognitive, and social well-being of seniors in the Union Miles neighborhood.
The Clyde Rahman Community Center	The Youth Ready Life Initiative	Hough	The Clyde Rahman Community Center, located in Hough, was awarded $2900.00 to support a six-week summer program for underserved young males in the Hough community. The program is designed to provide young men with practical life skills, positive guidance, and a safe space to grow during the summer months
The Giving Plate	Uplifting Lives Group	St. Clair Superior	Uplifting Lives Group, located in St. Clair Superior, was awarded $2900.00 to provide nutritious meals and essential supplies for individuals and families facing homelessness.
The People's Distro	The People's Distro	Buckeye-Woodhill	The People's Distro, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $2900.00 to get fresh produce to provide to community members.
The Westside Block Party*	The Westside Block Party: Celebrating Southeast Asian Voices in Our Neighborhood	Cudell/Edgewater	The Westside Block Party, in Cudell Edgewater, was awarded $2900 to host an annual block party celebrating Cleveland's Southeast Asian community, fostering unity & understanding while honoring their culture.
Turbans and Fezzes*	Ceremony Sound Healing	Buckeye-Woodhill	Turbans and Fezzes, located in Buckeye-Woodhill, was awarded $3900.00 to host a therapeutic healing program offering young people a safe and empowering space to regulate emotions and reduce stress,

Vista Del Sol Holdings	Lee-Seville Community Outreach Initiative	Lee Harvard	Vista Del Sol Holdings was funded $2,600 to deliver the Lee-Seville Community Outreach Initiative, kicked off by a Father's Day Picnic and followed by ongoing programming in literature, music, dance, painting, and history delivered through partnerships with local artists, writers, and historians. The initiative serves intergenerational families and neighbors in the Lee-Harvard / Miles Heights neighborhood.
West Blvd South of Lorain Neighbors	Welcome to Historic West Blvd Beautification Project	West Park	West Blvd South of Lorain Neighbors, in West Park, was awarded $2000 to Landscape and hardscape the small grassy area around the West Blvd Historic District marker sign at the intersection of West Blvd and West 105.
Woodbridge West	Woodbridge West Orchard celebration	Clark Fulton	Woodbridge West, in Clark Fulton, was awarded $2750 for Woodbridge West Orchard Celebration: A series of community work days to continue the building of a community orchard as a space where neighbors can gather and build community.
YeahYouToo Non-Profit Organization	Generation Uncursed™ Intergenerational Healing Workshop	Glenville	YeahYouToo Non-Profit Organization, in Glenville, was awarded $2900 to create a trauma-informed, prevention-focused program that brings youth, adults, and older adults together to strengthen communication, emotional wellness, and family connection through shared spaces for reflection and skill-building.