

Projects Funded in July 2022

Neighborhood Connections has approved $430,984 in grants to support 131 projects in Cuyahoga County. Cuyahoga Arts & Culture, the local public funder for arts and culture, will co-fund 15 resident-led arts and culture projects (noted with an “*”) through a partnership with Neighborhood Connections. Learn more at www.NeighborUpCLE.org.

Organization Name	Grant Amount	Neighborhood	Summary
10 Miles of Spring Breeze in Chinatown	$4,250.00	Asiatown	10 Miles of Spring Breeze in Asiatown was awarded funding create two community gardens to beautify their neighborhood.
A Heart's Desire, Inc.	$2,125.00	Cleveland	Dear Brown Girls received funding to continue their mentoring programming to support African American girls in Cleveland. Dear Brown Girls works with girls and young women to increase their self-confidence and skills to navigate the world.
A Life of Hope	$3,500.00	Cleveland	A Life of Hope Outreach will hold 24 outreach events in 2022 and 2023, providing meals, hygiene supplies and clothing to homeless and low-income people, with a special focus on low-income mothers with families. They will distribute at least 2,000 meals (bagged lunches and hot meals) and hygiene kits.
A Place For Us	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	A Place For Us received funding to support an annual neighborhood event in East Cleveland in remembrance and celebration of women who tragically lost their lives.

A Useful Vessel Counseling & Resources	$2,975.00	Central-Kinsman	A Useful Vessel Counseling & Resources received funding to educate residents about covid-19 and STIs and provide crucial items such as PPE and condoms. Will also provide resources and counseling on the issues of domestic violence, substance abuse, and mental health.
Adult Field Trips	$2,125.00	East Side of Cleveland	Adult Field Trips received funding to promote tours which aim to support exploration and learning from small businesses, art centers, and helping organizations as well as foster connections among residents.
Artzilla*	$3,000.00	Little Italy	Artzilla received funding for a series of public art interventions in the Little Italy neighborhood. The goal of this project is to foster a sense of community in the midst of the neighborhood's evolution.
Assassins Vanity	$2,125.00	Downtown	Assassins Vanity received funding to provide free classes which guide young adults who are interested in going into the beauty industry and are taught by a self-made professional in the field.
Be A Light	$4,250.00	East Side of Cleveland	Be A Light received funding to provide families impacted by trauma, mental health, and addiction with essential items such as grocery, winter apparel, and household items.
Benesch Rising Star	$2,975.00	Central-Kinsman	Benesch Rising Star received funding for weekly enrichment meetings for their 8th grade class, which will help establish goals and form a pathway for success.
BEST Community Resource Center	$2,975.00	North Collinwood South Collinwood East Cleveland	BEST Community Resource Center received funding for their Mobile Academic Classroom (MAC) which is part of their efforts to address the education and wealth gaps for African Americans. The MAC provides training programs including financial literacy and career development as well as a plethora of resources for K-12 learning.
BeU Sisters Foundation	$2,975.00	Central-Kinsman	BeU Sisters Foundation received funding for their Shades of Healing program which seeks to develop better connections between residents in the Central-Kinsman community, who deal with personal loss and grief due to violence, suicide, disease.
Buy Nothing Near West Side	$1,000.00	Detroit Shoreway	Buy Nothing Near West Side received funding for their Free for All event in July in which any person may donate or take-home items, free of charge. Funding will be used to supply hot food at the event (which will also be free).

Candace Institute for Women	$770.00	Hough	Candace Institute for Women received funding for their Dream workshops for women, which looks to provide a space where women can support each other's aspirations and confidence within a female focused environment.
Changing Lives Ministries	$4,250.00	Glenville	Changing Lives Ministries received funding for their project to combat social and physical isolation caused by the pandemic. They will provide a place to interact with others through physical exercise, art, and stress relieving activities.
Children At Play Costumes	$2,975.00	Glenville	Children At Play Costumes received funding for the purchase of supplies and new equipment to further reach their audience who benefits from them promoting and teaching literacy.
Chinese Learning Circle	$2,168.00	Asiatown	Chinese Learning Circle received funding for a class to help children in Asiatown learn Chinese culture, traditions, and language. The goal of this is to foster an understanding of their culture for the children and strengthen relationships in the community among adults and children alike.
CIPTT, inc.	$2,550.00	Central-Kinsman	CIPTT, inc. received funding to teach a small group of 10-12th grade IEP students in the Central-Kinsman neighborhood about sustainable solutions to promote healthy eating and living wellness. This will be done through immersing the students and community around them into the project of gardening (particularly sunflowers), with potential for the flourishing of home-based cottage businesses.
Cleveland Glory Waist Drum Dance Team*	$4,250.00	Asiatown	Cleveland Glory Waist Drum Dance Team received funding to expand and promote their dance team to build a stronger community including among residents who do not speak English.
Cleveland Pandemic Response	$4,250.00	Cleveland and East Cleveland	Cleveland Pandemic Response received funding to purchase hygiene and cleaning products as well as n-95 type masks for 100 high risk households.

Cleveland Westside Village	$1,743.00	Detroit Shoreway	Cleveland Westside Village received funding to strengthen the community through bonds among neighbors who may have never interacted before despite living next to each other. Funding will go towards the hosting of free outdoor concerts with food (among other current projects).
C-Life and the Leaders of Tomorrow	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	C-Life and the Leaders of Tomorrow received funding to promote flourishing among East Cleveland youth through career tours, educational support, and community activities to name a few. The goal is the empowerment of young adults and creation of young capable leaders within the community
Collective Arts Network	$1,530.00	Ohio City	Collective Arts Network received funding for its Launch Party which unites and networks artists, organizations, and enthusiasts within the art community in Cleveland for critical discourse and potential opportunities.
CollectivExpress- East Cleveland	$4,250.00	University Circle	CollectivExpress- East Cleveland: received funding for a free class on the set-up and recording knowledge needed to produce original musical content.
Colors+	$3,794.00	Cuyahoga County	Colors+ received funding to promote digital equity among youth through hotspots and computers, which will be monitored by a staff member to monitor the kid's use of their device.
Community Steward/Room To Let Curator Committee	$2,975.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	Community Steward/Room To Let Curator Committee received funding for their annual public art event which they are looking to scale up this year, adding to the art in Slavic village permanently and in new ways.
Dance Unites People*	$2,975.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	Dance Unites People received funding for a proposed outdoor dance party to promote the physical and social health of the community.
DCK Arts & Entertainment	$2,450.00	Lee Harvard	DCK Arts & Entertainment received funding for their second "Trunk or Treat" which will give school supplies and refreshments in a fun, outdoor atmosphere to 200 kids in costume.

Delta Sigma Theta	$4,000.00	Central, Fairfax and Hough	Delta Sigma Theta is using a Get Out the Vote (GOTV) mobile billboard and speaker program to inform and empower voting-aged community members about the upcoming midterm elections, cultivate their knowledge of issues of voter relevance, and inform community stakeholders how to fight voter suppression.
Ease of Spirit Ministries of HOPE	$2,975.00	East Cleveland North Collinwood South Collinwood St. Clair Superior Glenville	Ease of Spirit Ministries of HOPE received funding for a Bike club which aims to discuss real issues and instill values in 25 youth. Funding will go towards healthy meals served at the meetings as well as bikes for those who complete the entire program.
East 185th Street Merchants Association	$3,400.00	North Collinwood	East 185th Street Merchants Association received funding to sponsor a summer festival in the North area of the business district with family activities and giveaways to build community, share resources, and bring businesses and residents closer together.
East 74th Street Block Club	$2,125.00	Hough & St. Clair	East 74th Street Block Club received funding to hold life managing sessions dealing with mental health and stress of COVID-19, creating a safe environment.
EC Grows Community Garden	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	EC Grows Community Garden received funding to purchase the materials needed to garden successfully, including a recycled steel storage container to safely store supplies.
Edgewater Parke Neighbors*	$4,250.00	Cudell/Edgewater	Edgewater Parke Neighbors received funding for their mural project which aims to build community among people of different backgrounds and foster a sense of neighborhood pride.
EQUIPPED4LIFENOW	$2,975.00	Buckeye- Woodhill Harvard Pleasant Lee- Mt.	EQUIPPED4LIFENOW received funding to offer programs which strengthen reading and writing to K-12 students, with focused experiences for each age group to get them on track so they may succeed in each grade.
Extravagant Care Services, Inc.	$4,220.00	Midtown	Extravagant Care Services, Inc. received funding for their free musical celebration in the midtown neighborhood in hopes of fostering community.
Families In Crisis	$1,063.00	Hough	Families In Crisis received funding to expand on the beautification of the Hough neighborhood.

Fenwick Block Club	$4,250.00	Stockyards	Fenwick Block Club received funding to further its current sustainable tool loan program by expanding the variety of tools available and involving youth in managing and up keeping the shed.
FindingBlank	$1,913.00	Maple Heights	FindingBlank received funding for an after-school arts program called findingYOURPASSION. Activities offered range from Cooking to poetry to motivational speaking.
First Cleveland Mosque	$3,400.00	Mt. Pleasant	First Cleveland Mosque received funding for the Community Engagement Collaborative to uplift residents' social and emotional health and provide community engagement training to 15 residents initially.
Freethinkers Since 87*	$5,000.00	Fairfax	Freethinkers Since 87 received funding for the "Create Art Not Violence" showcase, which is an 8-week club which centers on the collective production of a music video by students who are interested in art.
Front Steps Housing & Services	$2,125.00	Cleveland	Front Steps Housing & Services provides housing and services to Cleveland's homeless population. They received funding for better marketing and running open houses and community collaboration meetings.
Fruit of The Womb Perinatal Services	$2,975.00	Clark Fulton	Fruit of The Womb Perinatal Services received funding for the creation of two lactation practices, which would host groups and classes for moms.
Generational Liaison for Overcoming Obstacle (G.L.O.O)	$2,975.00	Central-Kinsman	Generational Liaison for Overcoming Obstacle (G.L.O.O) received funding for a program to train people to be pharmacy technicians because of both the need for new pharmacy technicians and the large number of misplaced workers.
God's Vision Foundation	$2,550.00	Cleveland	God's Vision Foundation received funding to promote the health and wellbeing of women and children from low-income households, aiming to reduce child smoke inhalation, obesity, and food insecurity.
Hand Up Ministries	$1,738.00	Glenville	Hand Up Ministries received funding for its annual backpack and school supply giveaway in Glenville students. The event will also include a distribution of food bags and household supplies, as well as food and drinks served.

Handwriting On The Wall (HOW) Institute	$3,400.00	Buckeye Woodhill Central-Kinsman Fairfax Hough Midtown	Handwriting On The Wall (HOW) Institute received funding for their "Golf in Your Hood" program which allows youth from low-income households to gain insight into the game of golf, despite the game typically being played by those who are wealthy.
Harvard Square Center	$4,250.00	Mt. Pleasant	Harvard Square Center received funding for the Community Learning Garden/Clean Green project which aims to create community involvement and support.
HEAL - Buckeye Larchmere Woodland Hills	$3,613.00	Buckeye- Woodhill	HEAL - Buckeye Larchmere Woodland Hills received funding for their HEAL program which promotes health education and distribution of COVID tests and PPE. This program is to take place directly in 5 senior communities which is important for those in these communities who do not have access to transportation.
Hearts 2 Heart - Adult/Child/Infant Basic Life Support Classes	$4,250.00	Cleveland	Hearts 2 Heart - Adult/Child/Infant Basic Life Support Classes received funding for their class on life saving maneuvers in both the Glenville and East Cleveland neighborhoods.
Help In Time Of Need	$2,550.00	Cleveland	Help In Time Of Need received funding for their efforts to distribute supplies to those affected by COVID and poverty in several neighborhoods, particularly focusing on those in shelters, assisted living, and the homeless.
Helping Youth Succeed	$4,250.00	Lee Harvard	Helping Youth Succeed received funding for the creation of an after-school program which is a peer support group that also engages students in STEM learning. With the class being taught in two different locations (Cleveland Heights and Lee-Harvard (both along Lee Road)), it will allow kids and adults alike from different socio-economic and racial backgrounds to engage with the program together.
Henry Johnson Center	$2,550.00	Lee Harvard	Henry Johnson Center received funding for their "Sip & Paint" like community event intended to connect low-income residents to local agencies, offering job and life assistance.

Herron Row Street Club	$4,250.00	Mt. Pleasant	Herron Row Street Club received funding to revive their beautification project in the Mt. Pleasant community which needed additional grants after the winter of 2020 undid much of the previous progress that was made.
HIAS	$3,000.00	Fairfax & East Cleveland	HIAS will provide home ownership workshops for community members in these two neighborhoods.
High Art Fridays*	$3,246.00	Fairfax	High Art Fridays received funding for their project to educate youth and young adults in the Fairfax neighborhood about plastic pollution while creating art from such plastic which would otherwise pollute the environment
Historic Warehouse District Development Organization	$3,400.00	Downtown	Historic Warehouse District Development Organization received funding to beautify and create murals throughout the Settlers Landing Park to engage community members and organizations as well as create a functional and beautiful public space.
I Am More Than My Zip Code	$3,500.00	Mt. Pleasant	I Am More Than My Zip Code will include three major components: exposure to theatre, conversations with youth and young adult artist/entrepreneurs/professionals, and business/social/personal etiquette training for families. The participants will have an opportunity to experience a local theatre (school, church, community), a culturally specific theatre (Karamu House/Ohio City Theatre Project), and a state-of-the-art production (State/Allen Theatre).
Impact Youth Incorporated, LLC	$4,250.00	Cudell/Edgewater	Impact Youth Incorporated, LLC received funding for its summer leadership program L.E.A.D. for 5th through 8th graders in the Cudell/Edgewater neighborhoods. The goal of this program is to create youth leaders in the community by stressing academic and social skills alike and providing examples of adult leadership.
Inner City Baseball Academy of Greater Cleveland	$3,500.00	Cleveland	Inner City Baseball Academy of Greater Cleveland received funding to provide more opportunities for Black youth to learn and participate in the sport of baseball, with the eventual goal of increasing the number of prestigious Cleveland baseball players and scholarships awarded to Cleveland baseball players.

International Village Block Club	$4,250.00	Stockyards	International Village Block Club received funding for the purchase of a community shed which will store community tools, allowing most consistent access for all residents.
International Village Wildlife Museum	$4,250.00	Detroit Shoreway	International Village Wildlife Museum received funding for its museum featuring Ohio Wildlife and classroom space to teach free classes about taxidermy. The funds will be used for supplies and equipment with the goal of engaging more residents with wildlife and wildlife preservation.
Invigorate Gallery	$3,549.00	Hough	Invigorate Gallery received funding for the expansion of The Happy Hour at Invigorate Series which will involve residents in art, culture, community design, and personal wellness. These weekly events will build community and expose residents to new opportunities and local businesses.
Irishtown Bend Block Club*	$3,400.00	Tremont	Irishtown Bend Block Club received funding for the creation of a mural along Columbus Road which is a highly trafficked street running right through their community. The mural will be an expression of the current residents' identity, while also depicting the wave of Irish immigrants that historically settled in the same neighborhood.
Jones Home Neighborhood Association	$4,250.00	Clark Fulton	Jones Home Neighborhood Association received funding for community events in the Clark-Fulton neighborhood centering around community engagement, intergenerational activities, and the celebration of diversity. Funding will be used for promotion of events, hiring of entertainment, food, and resource provision, and tools and supplies to incentivize participation.
Jordan Community Resource Center	$3,400.00	Fairfax	Jordan Community Resource Center received funding to support its service to women in crisis, some of whom are impacted by human trafficking, substance abuse and incarceration.
Joy's House of Love	$2,975.00	South Collinwood	Joy's House of Love received funding for their Youth and young adult program helping kids who are transitioning both in and out of the foster care system. Educational activities based on the age and situation of each child will help them to plan and live their life moving forward.

Kasimbi and Karibuni Nyoto	$4,250.00	Cudell Clark Fulton Bellaire Puritas	Kasimbi and Karibuni Nyoto received funding to sponsor the purchase of a tractor which would allow them to continue and expand the growth of specialty vegetables from Africa.
Kentucky Garden Music Series*	$2,703.00	Ohio City	Kentucky Garden Music Series received funding to expand their outdoor concert music series, with 6 monthly concerts from May-October. The goal is to allow residents to gather and enjoy nature as a community in a safe setting at no cost.
KINGDOM OF GOD OUTREACH MINISTRY	$1,275.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	KINGDOM OF GOD OUTREACH MINISTRY received funding to provide food and supplies to the homeless and resources to individuals in need.
Kings & Queens of Art	$2,550.00	Central-Kinsman	Kings & Queens of Art received funding for the Central Neighborhood Network whose goal is to host intentional conversation among residents and expand social circles to promote wider social wellness. Live and Virtual conversations will be held every two weeks leading up to the creation of a community mural.
Larchmere PorchFest	$3,120.00	Shaker Square	Larchmere PorchFest received funding to support its annual PorchFest which was hampered due to the pandemic over the last two years. Larchmere PorchFest intends to promote social welfare and community building through free, shared music experience and supporting locally owned businesses.
Leila's Hands Inc.	$3,400.00	Buckeye- Woodhill	Leila's Hands Inc. received funding to offer a chance for youth in the Buckeye-Woodhill neighborhood to experience camping and other outdoor activities to promote environmental consciousness.
Linda Billings Jackson Re-entry Outreach	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	Linda Billings Jackson Re-entry Outreach received funding for a three-part concert series which will offer free live music at the center of the East Cleveland community and empower local business.
Little Africa Food Collaborative	$4,250.00	Hough	Little Africa Food Collaborative received funding for "The Growing Program" which is an agriculturally focused learning experience for student in the 6-12 grades. The program will provide hands on training for 25 youth who will not only benefit from the production of these crops but also the distribution of them to their community.

Living Truth Center for Better Living Inc.	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	Living Truth Center for Better Living Inc. received funding for its Belmore Reads program which focused solely on improving adult literacy for East Cleveland residents. This weekly program will include curriculum from reading teachers and activists as well as incentives for attendance.
Marshall Avenue Safety Group	$2,550.00	Central-Kinsman	Marshall Avenue Safety Group received funding for their annual Central-Kinsman community event on the second Saturday of September.
McCall Consulting & Associates Inc	$2,380.00	Glenville	McCall Consulting & Associates Inc received funding for their bi-yearly 8-week program which addresses various traumas, provides nutritional support, and appeals to the individual's artistic senses.
Millikin Neighborhood Group	$2,125.00	Cleveland Heights	Millikin Neighborhood Group received funding for the creation of weekly summer events to take place at the Millikin Playground. The events will include dance and yoga classes as well as arts and crafts for the youth in hopes that these activities will breakdown the racial and cultural division that exists within the community.
Mt. Olive Community Development Corporation	$4,250.00	Mt. Pleasant	Mt. Olive Community Development Corporation received funding for its efforts to create conversation and action work with the Mt. Pleasant community. The corporation's projects range from creating a newsletter to whole group meetings, all with the goal of commemorating the community's history and building community.
My Cool Solutions	$4,250.00	Lee Harvard	My Cool Solutions received funding for its efforts to combat misinformation about the COVID-19 pandemic within the Black and Brown community. The project aims to increased media literacy over all in addition to providing correct information on the pandemic.
New Freedom Community Arts Center*	$3,400.00	Mt. Pleasant	New Freedom Community Arts Center received funding to sponsor weekly arts classes for children and adults alike, including the activities of drumming, dancing, sewing, cooking, and braiding hair.
NOCL, Inc.	$3,145.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	NOCL, Inc. received funding for STEM ball which integrates the game of basketball with STEM education for 3rd-8th graders.
Operation Look out	$2,975.00	North Collinwood	Operation Look out received funding for the distribution of nourishment and resources to 80-100 senior citizens in the North Collinwood community.

Outhwaite Rising into Action II-2022*	$3,400.00	Central-Kinsman	Outhwaite Rising into Action II-2022 received funding for their community art party which will take place in an empty lot with painting supplies, refreshments, and resources available to the residents of Central-Kinsman.
Pakistani Cultural Garden	$2,550.00	University Circle	Pakistani Cultural Garden received funds for the marketing and creation of the blueprints necessary to begin construction of the Pakistani Cultural Garden.
Peace In The Hood*	$4,250.00	Union Miles	Peace In The Hood received funding for their youth camp intended to be a haven from violence. Campers will create art and learn drum and dance in preparation for a presentation of their work to the community.
Positive Plus Women's Support Group	$4,250.00	Cleveland	Positive Plus Women's Support Group received funding for their conference for families who are victims of violence who may be feeling isolated. The conference would include speakers, breakout sessions, a reception, and a service.
Project Save	$4,250.00	Central-Kinsman	Project Save received funding for The Hot Meal Hospitality Program which distributes food and supplies to residents of the Central-Kinsman neighborhood.
Proper Modulation	$2,703.00	Detroit Shoreway	Proper Modulation received funding for its "Family Fun Night" which is to include a rented outdoor roller rink available to families prior to and during the showing of a Disney movie.
R Place Drop In Center	$4,000.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	R Place will offer intervention and prevention assistance for the recovery community. We hope to accomplish this while improving upon the lives and well-being of alcoholics, drug addicts, their families, and the various communities in which they live, work, and play.
REACHING UNDERNEATH THE HURT*	$2,720.00	Broadway-Slavic Village	REACHING UNDERNEATH THE HURT received funding for a Celebration of African American Culture with the arts which will seek to establish community pride and unity through a festival like environment, with dance, music, poetry, and storytelling.

ReadUp	$2,975.00	East Cleveland	ReadUp received funding for the creation of a book club to take place in parks around the East Cleveland area. It is intended for participants to be able to take home the books after the club, to foster a love of reading during the summer months off school.
Reality Check Dance Team	$3,000.00	Downtown	Reality Check Dance Team will host a dance showcase that will bring the dancers and community together to show what they dancers have learned while also connecting community members to opportunities in the area.
Redirections Restorers of Faith Program	$4,250.00	Union Miles	Redirections Restorers of Faith Program received funding for their efforts to create a safe space for women suffering from Mental health and substance abuse to express themselves. Participation in art therapy, letter writing to other women, and the maintenance of a garden are proposed parts of this program.
Residents of St Clair Superior	$2,550.00	St. Clair Superior	Residents of St Clair Superior received funding to establish a mutual aid box in the St Clair Plaza to uplift the area with a welcoming gathering space and give residents access to resources they need.
Riff Mechanics	$4,000.00	East Side of Cleveland	Riff Mechanics will equip and ice cream truck with a fully analog recording studio, that will collect stories from the community and spread joy with free ice cream, and music.
Roberto Clemente Park Block Club	$5,000.00	Clark Fulton	Roberto Clemente Park Block Club received funding for their entire 2022 schedule of events in the Clark Fulton neighborhood which includes a multitude of social events and community beautification projects.
Salaam Clinic	$3,188.00	Hough	Salaam Clinic received funding for The Be Well Program which is a weekly nutritional and wellness class for Cleveland youth. The program will address disease, nutrition, and stress management among other topics.
Sallie Mae Thomas Foundation for Entrepreneurship	$2,125.00	Buckeye-Woodhill	Sallie Mae Thomas Foundation for Entrepreneurship received funding for the creation of an entrepreneur class for the youth, aiming to teach problem solving and marketing.
SCY Blue Village	$2,550.00	Collinwood East Cleveland	SCY Blue Village received funding for its Drone Aviation course. Classes will be offered to 10 students, take place over the course of 6 months, and prepare the students for testing and certification.

Shalom and Tranquility Community Garden	$4,250.00	Brooklyn Centre	Shalom and Tranquility Community Garden received funding to expand the current garden with additional gathering space, leading to more opportunities for community events.
Speak Into The Light	$3,461.00	Shaker Square	Speak Into The Light received funding for the "Don't Be Rude" workshop, which teaches youth ages 7-12 about etiquette and ends with a formal dinner.
Square Dancing in Asiatown	$2,125.00	Asiatown	Square Dancing in Asiatown received funding for Asia Town's Chinese square dance team, which encourages residents to get outside and adds cultural elements to the community.
Super Garden Kidz	$2,000.00	Brooklyn Centre	Super Garden Kidz received funding for its garden including for monthly Nerf gun battles, which are purposed to attract more youth to come to the garden and participate in activities.
Tasy, Inc.	$4,250.00	Union Miles	Tasy, Inc. received funding to distribute food and supplies along with vital information about the COVID-19 pandemic and PPE at the Killingsworth Place.
Teaching Young Women in Society Truth*	$4,250.00	East Cleveland	Teaching Young Women in Society Truth received funding for their arts workshop which aims to provide a positive outlet for young women ages 12-21. Participants will be able to take lessons and explore music, art, and photography with professionals, as well as take field trips to nature areas to draw, paint, or write songs.
Teen Start Program	$3,188.00	Buckeye-Woodhill	Teen Start Program received funding for the creation of a Mental Health Awareness Campaign in the Buckeye-Woodhill neighborhood, to diminish the stigma of mental health within the community.
Temp Labor	$4,000.00	East Side of Cleveland	Temp Labor will utilize their funding to provide home repair services to older adults in their community.
Ten Toes Foundation	$2,000.00	South Collinwood	Ten Toes Foundation will reach out to the youth ages 11-17 to give them clothes, school supplies, and offer fun activities. They will have different events in the neighborhood.

Tender Hearts Crusades	$3,500.00	Hough	Tender Hearts Crusades Same will host "Color Shadow" an afterschool and summer Juneteenth arts festival and antiracism workshop at the Rainey Institute for youth, featuring Juilliard-trained dancer Nehemiah Spencer, artist Davon Brantley, DJ Doc, and the Refresh Collective, Obadiah Baker, a Black composer, and America's Got Talent 2020 Golden Buzzer winners, The Silhouettes, with cultural performances with Capoeira Brasil Cleveland and DJAPO Cultural Arts Center. Here, students in grades 8-12 will have an option to participate in a variety of programs.
The Beautiful Cycle	$2,975.00	Hough	The Beautiful Cycle received funding to provide feminine products to women and girls, targeting schools, education centers, and food banks. With this funding they will also conduct a workshop class on self-esteem, hygiene, health, wellness, and proper nutrition.
The Collective	$4,250.00	Greater Cleveland	The Collective received funding to continue its distribution of vital resources, such as hygiene and household supplies, to Greater Cleveland.
The Community Care Collective	$4,000.00	Midtown	Community Care Collective will host Mx. Juneteenth: A Black and Queer Liberation Celebration. This event is a space for reverence, remembrance, and celebration for the Juneteenth holiday all from the queer perspective. Mx. Juneteenth celebrates the diversity in Blackness and highlights the numerous points of intersection within the Black experience. It includes live performances of local artists, drag queens, local and small business vendor garden, a Black restaurant food garden and more!
The Forever and a Day Foundation	$2,550.00	Buckeye-Woodhill	The Forever and a Day Foundation received funding to help families who lost a child. Efforts include counseling services, memory services, providing basic, and education on infant mortality.
The Hummingbird Project	$2,338.00	Clark Fulton	The Hummingbird Project received funding for the 2022 Climate Change Workshop Series, which seeks to engage member of the Clark-Fulton neighborhood in the growing future regenerative home gardens. The weekly workshops will feature guest speakers and involve the participants in hands-on learning.

The One Where We Remember Garden Group	$4,000.00	Brooklyn Centre	The One Remember will host "Christmas in July" where they will have a holiday celebration this July to honor their late garden leader while also bringing neighbors together.
Tremont Arts & Cultural Festival/Tremont West Development Corp	$2,975.00	Tremont	Tremont Arts & Cultural Festival/Tremont West Development Corp received funding for their yearly arts festival which looks to include art focused on several different marginalized groups.
Trials for Hope	$2,550.00	Ohio City Detroit Shoreway	Trials for Hope received funding to continue their efforts to help the most marginalized members of their community, through their food pantry, community dinners, and outreach to the homeless.
Trinity Outreach Ministries	$4,000.00	Glenville	Trinity Outreach Ministries will host "New Neighbors, New Conversations, New Connections: Planning Activities, Planting Flowers and Growing Friendships" in the Glenville /University Circle. It's time to come out of the house to meet and welcome the new neighbors. They want to reach out, in the midst of what we are hoping to be a post pandemic world and facilitate interactions and conversations between the new home owners in the Ashbury Ave area circle and the longstanding surviving home owners.
unBail	$5,000.00	Cuyahoga County	unBail is a free mobile app that allows defendants to access information about their specific case and how it relates to the broader system they are navigating whenever they need it. Our app breaks the legal system down into easily digestible parts and provides engaging content, making it easy for defendants to stay informed. Defendants also can connect to resources within the app if necessary. By increasing defendant engagement and improving the transparency of the legal system, unBail aims to increase court appearance rates and encourage more equitable case outcomes for defendants.
Untapped Potential Productions	$4,250.00	Cleveland	Untapped Potential Productions received funding for their media project aims to raise the spirituality of young people, in hopes that it will positively impact learning and mental attitude among the youth.
Uprising Creative Arts*	$3,400.00	Glenville	Uprising Creative Arts received funding for its efforts to promote creative arts to direct the energy of Glenville youth towards positive and productive goals.

Ursuline Piazza	$4,250.00	Detroit Shoreway	Ursuline Piazza received funding for the creation of two social event for residents living with HIV. These events will consist of an outdoor picnic with food provided as well as a retreat day focusing on methods to reduce stress.
Utilities for All	$4,000.00	Cleveland	Utilities for All received funding to recruit additional members to their cause and host four community gatherings to discuss organizing strategies for fighting for utility rights.
Vel Scott's Healthy You	$4,250.00	University Circle	Vel Scott's Healthy You (A project of New Image Life Skills Academy, Inc.) received funding to establish a hydroponic farming method to be used so that the Purple Oasis may be operational year-round, promoting healthy living.
Vineyard's Community	$4,250.00	Lake County	Vineyard's Community received funding to cover the rising costs and demand for food needed to feed Lake County residents.
W 56th St. Neighbors	$4,250.00	Clark Fulton	W 56th St. Neighbors received funding to clean up and maintain alleyways in the Clark-Fulton neighborhood, which have recently been the victims of illegal dumping.
W73rd Community Coalition*	$2,125.00	Stockyards	W73rd Community Coalition received funding for the creation of a Stockyards sign at the corner of Denison & W73rd along with the beautification of the area around it and a celebration picnic.
We Think 4 A Change	$1,275.00	Glenville Hough Garden Valley Broadway-Slavic Village	We Think 4 A Change received funding for their efforts to close the digital divide through offering Digital and Financial Skills Training and distributing technological equipment. Other parts of the program include financial education and connecting residents to other education and job training programs.
Young Leaders Program	$1,666.00	North Collinwood	Young Leaders Program received funding for the creation of leadership boxes, which are intended to help engage students at home with the help of an adult, in the absence of consistent in-person learning opportunities
Zion Hill Baptist Church	$4,250.00	Mt. Pleasant	Zion Hill Baptist Church received funding to procure and distribute hot food, PPE, and toiletries to the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood.